

Try the 1-2-3 Time Rate. REAL ESTATE Will Be Done by the Greater New York. IT'S BEST TO BEGIN IN TIME. 2,000,000 PEOPLE SEE THE WORLD'S REAL ESTATE ADVERTISEMENTS. PRICE ONE CENT

EVENING EDITION World "Circulation Books Open to All."

Weather: Fair, Warmer. SITUATION "Help Wants" 3,252 SEEKERS Last Week. PLACE-GETTER. Help-Hunters found long ago that it was a PLACE-FILLER. THE TWO FACTS GO TOGETHER. PRICE ONE CENT.

NIGHT EDITION

LEVI AND TOM STILL CHUMS.

The Governor-Elect and His Patron Deny the Reported Falling Out.

NO FRICTION, SAYS PLATT.

Mr. Morton intimates that he and Strong are in Equal Accord.

MANY SEEKERS FOR PLUMS.

His Callers To-Day Said They Merely Paid Their Respects to the Chief.

This is the outcome of Mr. Morton's visit to town to-day. First he is good friends with Platt, and hobnobbed with him this morning. Second, he is all fellow with Strong, and has had a long conference with the Mayor-elect. Third, Mr. Platt promises to be the friend and adviser of both. Fourth, Mr. Morton says he and Mr. Strong will work in harmony together—the city and State in one accord.

The shock to the nerves of the machine Republicans over the story published in two of the morning papers, that "Boss" Platt and Gov.-elect Morton were "frit" and that the longest for plums would not fall into their outstretched hands, seems to have been needlessly caused.

As a matter of fact, there is not a word of truth in the story. Mr. Morton and Mr. Platt are as good friends as ever, and the latter will have as big a hand as usual in the distribution of State patronage.

The only ground for the publication of the story was the alleged fact that Platt did not call upon the Governor-elect yesterday, when the latter arrived in the city. At once the rumor was spread that a break had occurred, and that Mr. Morton would no longer seek the advice of the Republican leader. Platt, however, did everything possible for the Union League, who are alleged to be Platt's bitterest enemies.

Not only did both parties to the alleged break deny the truth of the stories to-day, but it is further announced positively that Platt and Morton did actually meet at the breakfast table over an hour talked over State matters.

Mr. Platt reached his office on lower Broadway shortly before 9 o'clock to-day. He was found there by an "Evening World" reporter, and on being asked if he had read the story of the alleged quarrel, he said he had.

"You can say positively for me," he said, "that there is not a single word of truth in any part of the story. My relations with Mr. Morton are now, as they always have been, of the most pleasant nature. There is not the least bit of friction, nor is there anything to cause me to think that a quarrel exists."

Gov.-elect Morton read the morning over the breakfast table at the Hotel Renaissance, Forty-third street and Fifth avenue, and he took no pains to conceal the fact that he was angry in consequence. A number of Republican friends had hurried around to see him when the breakfast table was broken was true. To all he gave a most unqualified denial. He was in that mood when the reporter called.

Beyond denying the story in every particular as to the breakfast table, Mr. Platt said that he had no time to talk, as he was up to his ears in business.

It will be at my office later in the day," he added, and will then answer any and all questions freely.

From one of Mr. Morton's callers it was ascertained that the question of the make-up of the cabinet was being discussed. It is said that he talked it over with Mr. Platt yesterday, but that the latter was not inclined to make any suggestions.

The main trouble is with the number of applicants for places. He was at work on the matter this morning, but later announced that he would probably be able to give out the names for a day or so.

Mr. Platt paid his respects to the Governor-elect at the latter's office about noon. He said his call had no political significance. But there were others who, it is thought, did not call only to pay their respects to the coming chief of the State. They were ex-Sheriff William, ex-Commissioner Van Cott, ex-Superintendent of Prisons, John A. B. Dwyer, ex-Commissioner of the State Prison, and John A. B. Dwyer, ex-Commissioner of the State Prison, and John A. B. Dwyer, ex-Commissioner of the State Prison.

LOOKS LIKE MURDER.

Mrs. Foglia Slain and Her Husband Instantly Disappeared.

He Buys a New Overcoat and Has Plenty of Money for Escape.

Three Men Arrested by the Police as a Precautionary Step.

The police of the One Hundredth street station, this morning arrested Louis Badarone, Ludwig Zona and Charles Duttanis, charged with knowledge of the alleged murder of Mrs. Primativa Foglia, at 562 Columbus avenue, first published exclusively in "The Evening World" of yesterday.

The precinct has six men on the case, and Headquarters two more, to prevent the culprits from escaping justice.

They are hot on the track of the husband, Bernard Foglia, and a companion with whom he was last seen.

Few of the elements of mystery that surround the case have been cleared, but the conviction has become almost positive that the woman did not kill herself, but was murdered, and that the missing husband is the principal in the tragedy, but aided by accessories.

It has been learned that after his wife's death, Foglia bought an overcoat, and was seen in company with Martin Barbera, of 21 South Fifth avenue, last evening, lounging about the streets. Foglia, at that time, showed $10 in cash.

The dead girl, who was but nineteen years old, was married to Foglia by Barbera, who was a priest.

The young couple lived in comfortable circumstances. The two children they had died at birth. Recently the neighbors say that Foglia had grown insanely jealous of his wife, and had frequent bursts of temper.

Being young and attractive and having an uncommonly pretty home for her class, and buying the best of groceries and wines, they were much envied by their neighbors, with whom they were on friendly terms.

The woman died Monday night, in all probability, at the door of the bread house, at the corner of the street where he lived Tuesday. He knocked, left a note, and then returned.

The baker tried the door. It was bolted. He called to the neighbors. None had seen Mrs. Foglia since Monday afternoon. The baker came all the way down to tell Mrs. Foglia's father and some cousins in West Third street of the strange matter, but the unclaimed bread and the bolted door.

Mr. Van Cott no doubt thinks his experience as Postmaster of the city has fitted him for any high position Mr. Morton may choose to confer upon him.

Mr. Platt paid his respects to the Governor-elect at the latter's office about noon. He said his call had no political significance.

But there were others who, it is thought, did not call only to pay their respects to the coming chief of the State. They were ex-Sheriff William, ex-Commissioner Van Cott, ex-Superintendent of Prisons, John A. B. Dwyer, ex-Commissioner of the State Prison, and John A. B. Dwyer, ex-Commissioner of the State Prison.

Mr. Morton's family is at Rhinecliff, and Mr. Morton is expected to leave for that place late this afternoon if nothing transpired.

It is estimated that the Governor-elect said to-day that he had been assured that any appointments made by

Mr. Morton's family is at Rhinecliff, and Mr. Morton is expected to leave for that place late this afternoon if nothing transpired.

It is estimated that the Governor-elect said to-day that he had been assured that any appointments made by

WHAT WE MAY BE COMING TO.

AN "EVENING WORLD" ARTIST'S IDEA OF A FUTURE SUNDAY PARADE ON FIFTH AVENUE, SUGGESTED BY THE STORY OF THE TRAMP WHO LODGED IN MRS. ASTOR'S HOUSE.

BIDS FOR THE BONDS.

Many Sent to the Treasury Department To-day.

Banks Will Furnish Gold for First Payment.

Bullion Dealers Say There Is No Call for Yellow Metal.

Many large bids for the new Government bonds were sent to the Treasury Department to-day. With few exceptions the amounts of the individual subscriptions are said to be $1,000 or more.

It is said that two banking firms will have bids in Washington by to-morrow of $5,000 each.

Nearly all the firms named as being in the syndicate, headed by the United States Trust Company, will send in individual bids for bonds, in addition to their syndicate bid. A majority of the large downtown banks will also send in individual subscriptions.

The question of getting the gold with which to pay for the bonds is apparently pretty well settled, the banks having signified their willingness to part with a sufficient amount of their holdings to permit of the first payment of 50 per cent, anyway, and perhaps 50 per cent of the entire amount required for the total issue of $50,000,000.

So far, but little has been heard of any cities outside of New York subscribing for any portion of the issue. Boston and New York take a few hundred thousand of the bonds, but they are not counted upon.

A despatch from Philadelphia this morning says:

In this city the subscriptions to the new United States bonds are now expected to be at least $1,000,000. There is a natural good demand for gold from those who propose to make offers for bonds, and the point is made that much more gold will probably be provided for than will be needed when the subscriptions close. The banks in this city are liberally expediting all requirements for gold.

It was stated at the Sub-Treasury this morning that the term of the circular calling for bids will be strictly adhered to, and that all bids, to receive any notice, must be mailed to-day, so as to be in Washington by noon to-morrow.

The agencies of the Canadian banks to-day received $200,000 additional gold for the purpose of buying the new bonds.

Bullion dealers say there is no demand for gold to-day.

President Williams, of the Chemical Bank, said to-day: "The Chemical Bank is in no syndicate or agreement connected with the Government bond issue. The bank will not bid for any bonds. We will furnish to depositors who may be successful bidders the gold they may require to pay for bonds. We will not get it from the Sub-Treasury. We believe the banks generally intend to act liberally in this matter."

There has been a number of calculations published as to the prices at which bids should be made on the new issue. The following prices are estimated by experts, and include interest accrued to Nov. 24:

Rate. Price.
11 1/2 per cent. 117.125.
12 1/2 per cent. 117.687.
13 1/2 per cent. 118.250.
14 1/2 per cent. 118.812.
15 per cent. 119.375.

GOLD WITHDRAWN TO-DAY.

Southern National Bank Takes $200,000 from Sub-Treasury.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The only gold withdrawal so far announced, from the New York Sub-Treasury, was $200,000 by the Southern National Bank. The Treasury cash balance to-day is $100,453,584 and gold reserve, $17,966,475, excluding $250,000 withdrawn yesterday and to-day.

YALE AT SPRINGFIELD.

The Team Brings Even a Water Supply from New Haven.

(By Associated Press.) SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 23.—The Yale team arrived in this city at 2:45 this afternoon, and were met at the depot by a large crowd of enthusiasts. The team will stop at the School for Christian Workers' Buildings and will leave for Hampden Park at 1:15 to-morrow.

The train brought with it cooking utensils, water and two boilers, so that there will be no change in the food until after the game. Dr. Witt did not come by the train, but is here and will play to-morrow. All the coaches are here, together with about a dozen substitutes.

Killed His Sweetheart. (By Associated Press.) CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 23.—Judge Doe, at 2:30 this afternoon, found Arthur McLean guilty of murder in the second degree.

FERRYBOAT SMASHED.

The Netherlands Badly Damaged and Four Men Hurt.

She Crashed Into Her Slip While Going at Full Speed.

Women's Cabin Converted Into a Temporary Hospital.

The double-deck propeller ferryboat Netherlands, of the Hoboken Ferry Company, while trying to effect a landing in the Barclay street slip shortly before 9 o'clock this morning crashed into the

on the front deck when the crash came, and several horses were knocked down. To add to the excitement the passengers in that part of the boat were compelled to avoid the heels of the struggling animals.

The boat struck the piling on the starboard side, just about midships, and almost opposite to the double stairways leading from the lower to the upper deck.

The woodwork and windows on her starboard guard side were torn away for about 50 feet. The heavy piles snapped off short like pipestems.

Finally the boat struck a more than usually stout pile and stuck fast. Then the officers and crew of the boat, assisted by such of the passengers who had retained their presence of mind, set about aiding the wounded.

The aft end of the ladies' cabin on the port side was turned into an impromptu hospital, where the injured were carefully carried.

There were scores of others who were bruised by being thrown about by the shock of the collision, but they were not injured in the crash, none fatally, and many others received bruises. The names of the four are:

LOUIS A. ROBELOTT-CLOREY, 34-year-old, of the Equitable Life Insurance Company, three at High and Spring streets, Hoboken; died severely cut.

FRANK O'NEILL, 22-year-old, of the right bank, avenue, Hoboken; contusion of the right knee, ankle dislocated and other bruises.

J. C. SASTON, 49-year-old, East 9th street, New York; right hand cut and slight scalp wounds.

The accident was due to the strong tide which was running at the time, and the efforts of the pilot to avoid running into a tug boat which crossed the slip just as the Netherlands was about to enter.

About 1,500 passengers were on board and instantly there was a panic. Women screamed and fainted. Men called for help and shouted out impossible orders and suggestions. The lower deck starboard cabin was piled with flying splinters. Men covered with blood lay around in all directions on the floor.

A number of passengers were feared to be seriously injured.

SANITARY LAWS UNHEEDED.

It Is Claimed the Health Board Staff Is Too Small.

There was a sprinkling of ladies present at this afternoon's session of the Tenement House Commission in the old Criminal Court Building. Miss Louise Schuyler, the philanthropist, and her sister, Miss Genevieve Schuyler, and several other occupied seats in the jury box and paid close attention to the proceedings.

Rev. John D. Devine, pastor of Hope Church, 120 East 11th street, said that his church had endeavored to better the condition of the tenement-house population of the city, and that he was not one of the many tenement-house owners on Fifth street, between Third and Fourth avenues, who had been found guilty of violating the law regarding cleanliness.

In the cellar of one house they found the decayed bones of cats and dogs, and in a cellar on Lewis street they removed fifty barrels of rubbish. In one house they found a 12 1/2 by 12 1/2 foot, eight families.

Mr. Devine thought the present force of the Board of Health inadequate to the wants of the city. He urged that the Commission would have a committee to visit the Board of Health upon this subject to-morrow.

Mr. Devine favored the establishment of winter bath-houses, and suggested that every tenement be compelled to have a running fountain outside of their place, which was resolved with laughter.

FLIRT WINS EASILY.

Leads Practically All the Way and Takes the Third Race.

Old Dominion Gets Up Just in Time to Win on the Post.

Economist, Jack the Jew and Leonardo Other Winners at St. Asaph.

(Special to The Evening World.) RACE TRACK, ST. ASAPH, Nov. 23.—It rained early this morning, but at noon the sun came out and the weather was warm and pleasant. The track was fairly good, while the "scratches" were very few. The attendance was large and nineteen bookmakers were doing business.

"Jack the Jew" ran a very bad race yesterday, but the talent would not believe it was his correct form, and they made him a strong favorite over Romping Girl in the second race.

With Sims up on Jack the Jew the colt ran a greatly improved race. He made a disposition on the part of the press to criticize this arrangement, and that "he does not at this time wish to subject the District-Attorney to any criticism whatever."

He therefore hands in his resignation, to take effect immediately upon the appointment of his successor.

Mr. Wellman added that he had never been instructed to do anything but his full duty in the prosecution of any cases since he has been connected with the office.

At every meeting of the Police Commission the bill for the prosecution of the accused police captains and sergeants has come up. It has never been acted upon, and that has irritated him.

The Commissioners held that his salary should cover this, so the bill was laid over from week to week.

GEORGE LORD DAY BETTER.

He Passed a Comfortable Night and Is Improving.

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., Nov. 23.—George Lord Day, who was seriously injured in a cross-country run on Tuesday, and is now lying at the Meadow Brook Club near this place, was reported to-day to be better.

He passed a comfortable night and was resting quietly at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

President Cleveland Not So Well. (By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23.—The usual Friday Cabinet meeting did not take place to-day, having been postponed because the President was not quite so well, the wet weather aggravating the gout and sprain of the foot, which has kept him indoors at Woodley for several days.

Oppenheim & Co. Win. The jury in the suit of Edward L. Oppenheim & Co., brokers, of 35 New street, against James M. Waterbury, G. Weaver Loper and Matthew Griffin, growing out of the failure of the Cordage Trust, returned a verdict in the afternoon in favor of the plaintiffs for $24,834.50.

The Fight and the Prize. (By Associated Press.) DAYTON, Nov. 23.—The fight between the two champions of the world, Jim Corbett and Tom Sayers, was held to-day at the Dayton Athletic Club. The fight was a close one, and the prize was $10,000.

Last round and wind-up in the great Oriental slugging match.

Death of Dr. F. L. Sim. (By Associated Press.) MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 23.—Dr. F. L. Sim, one of the most eminent physicians in the country, died at his home in this city to-day aged sixty years.

For Entries and other Sporting News see Page 2.

WELLMAN GETS OUT.

He Resigns His Place as Assistant District-Attorney.

Criticism of the Office More Than He Could Stand.

Police Board Had Refused to Pass on His Bill for Services.

Francis L. Wellman this afternoon handed in his resignation as an Assistant District-Attorney to Col. Fellows.

In his letter of resignation, Mr. Wellman says that when he became an Assistant District-Attorney he did so with the understanding that he should be permitted to practise in the civil courts when he was not engaged in criminal business connected with the District-Attorney's office.

Mr. Wellman says that he has noticed a disposition on the part of the press to criticize this arrangement, and that "he does not at this time wish to subject the District-Attorney to any criticism whatever."

He therefore hands in his resignation, to take effect immediately upon the appointment of his successor.

Mr. Wellman added that he had never been instructed to do anything but his full duty in the prosecution of any cases since he has been connected with the office.

At every meeting of the Police Commission the bill for the prosecution of the accused police captains and sergeants has come up. It has never been acted upon, and that has irritated him.

The Commissioners held that his salary should cover this, so the bill was laid over from week to week.

FLIRT WINS EASILY.

Leads Practically All the Way and Takes the Third Race.

Old Dominion Gets Up Just in Time to Win on the Post.

Economist, Jack the Jew and Leonardo Other Winners at St. Asaph.

(Special to The Evening World.) RACE TRACK, ST. ASAPH, Nov. 23.—It rained early this morning, but at noon the sun came out and the weather was warm and pleasant. The track was fairly good, while the "scratches" were very few. The attendance was large and nineteen bookmakers were doing business.

"Jack the Jew" ran a very bad race yesterday, but the talent would not believe it was his correct form, and they made him a strong favorite over Romping Girl in the second race.

With Sims up on Jack the Jew the colt ran a greatly improved race. He made a disposition on the part of the press to criticize this arrangement, and that "he does not at this time wish to subject the District-Attorney to any criticism whatever."

He therefore hands in his resignation, to take effect immediately upon the appointment of his successor.

Mr. Wellman added that he had never been instructed to do anything but his full duty in the prosecution of any cases since he has been connected with the office.

At every meeting of the Police Commission the bill for the prosecution of the accused police captains and sergeants has come up. It has never been acted upon, and that has irritated him.

The Commissioners held that his salary should cover this, so the bill was laid over from week to week.

Mr. Wellman added that he had never been instructed to do anything but his full duty in the prosecution of any cases since he has been connected with the office.

At every meeting of the Police Commission the bill for the prosecution of the accused police captains and sergeants has come up. It has never been acted upon, and that has irritated him.

FLIRT WINS EASILY.

Leads Practically All the Way and Takes the Third Race.

Old Dominion Gets Up Just in Time to Win on the Post.

Economist, Jack the Jew and Leonardo Other Winners at St. Asaph.

(Special to The Evening World.) RACE TRACK, ST. ASAPH, Nov. 23.—It rained early this morning, but at noon the sun came out and the weather was warm and pleasant. The track was fairly good, while the "scratches" were very few. The attendance was large and nineteen bookmakers were doing business.

"Jack the Jew" ran a very bad race yesterday, but the talent would not believe it was his correct form, and they made him a strong favorite over Romping Girl in the second race.

With Sims up on Jack the Jew the colt ran a greatly improved race. He made a disposition on the part of the press to criticize this arrangement, and that "he does not at this time wish to subject the District-Attorney to any criticism whatever."

He therefore hands in his resignation, to take effect immediately upon the appointment of his successor.

Mr. Wellman added that he had never been instructed to do anything but his full duty in the prosecution of any cases since he has been connected with the office.

At every meeting of the Police Commission the bill for the prosecution of the accused police captains and sergeants has come up. It has never been acted upon, and that has irritated him.

The Commissioners held that his salary should cover this, so the bill was laid over from week to week.

FLIRT WINS EASILY.

Leads Practically All the Way and Takes the Third Race.

Old Dominion Gets Up Just in Time to Win on the Post.

Economist, Jack the Jew and Leonardo Other Winners at St. Asaph.

(Special to The Evening World.) RACE TRACK, ST. ASAPH, Nov. 23.—It rained early this morning, but at noon the sun came out and the weather was warm and pleasant. The track was fairly good, while the "scratches" were very few. The attendance was large and nineteen bookmakers were doing business.

"Jack the Jew" ran a very bad race yesterday, but the talent would not believe it was his correct form, and they made him a strong favorite over Romping Girl in the second race.

With Sims up on Jack the Jew the colt ran a greatly improved race. He made a disposition on the part of the press to criticize this arrangement, and that "he does not at this time wish to subject the District-Attorney to any criticism whatever."

He therefore hands in his resignation, to take effect immediately upon the appointment of his successor.

Mr. Wellman added that he had never been instructed to do anything but his full duty in the prosecution of any cases since he has been connected with the office.

At every meeting of the Police Commission the bill for the prosecution of the accused police captains and sergeants has come up. It has never been acted upon, and that has irritated him.

The Commissioners held that his salary should cover this, so the bill was laid over from week to week.

Mr. Wellman added that he had never been instructed to do anything but his full duty in the prosecution of any cases since he has been connected with the office.

At every meeting of the Police Commission the bill for the prosecution of the accused police captains and sergeants has come up. It has never been acted upon, and that has irritated him.

NIGHT EDITION

FELLOWS ON TOP AGAIN.

Gov. Flower Will Not Appoint a Deputy Until the Charges Are Disposed Of.

SET BACK FOR THE SEVENTY.

Mr. Laroque Declares His Committee Will Keep Up the Fight.

BLAMES THE COMMITTEE OF FIVE.

But for "Good Government Interference," He Says, All Would Have Been Well.

Gov. Flower has found an excuse in the application to have District-Attorney Fellows removed from office for denying the request of the LXX to have the Attorney-General conduct the prosecution of election cases, and those in which the misconduct of public officials is involved.

The Governor's letter to the sub-committee of the LXX was received this morning and is as follows:

STATES OF NEW YORK, ALBANY, Nov. 23, 1894.

Messrs. Joseph Laroque, Horace Porter and C. C. Beaman, Committee, New York.

Dear Sirs:—Your communication yesterday's date, with inclosure requesting me to require the Attorney-General, in person or by deputy, to attend a Court of New York and terminate, to be held in the city of New York on the 28th Monday of December, next, for the purpose of managing and conducting certain actions and proceedings relating to crimes committed against the election laws and misconduct of public officials, is received.

The District-Attorney concurs, is resolved.

Yesterday charges were preferred against District-Attorney Fellows by citizens of New York, which I have sent him, and asked him to answer within eight days. Until these charges are tried and disposed of, I prefer not to take any definite action with regard to the subject of your letter.

(Signed) ROBERT F. FLOWER.

When Attorney Laroque handed a copy of the above letter to an "Evening World" reporter he said:

"Now, you see the ill-advised action of these five young men has delayed, if not prevented, a course of action that all good citizens are clamoring for."

Continuing, he stated that the Committee, of which he is Chairman, had not by any means abandoned the fight to have the Governor instruct the Attorney-General to name a deputy to conduct the cases referred to.

"Last evening," he said, "Gen. Porter, Mr. Beaman and myself sent a supplementary letter to Gov. Flower, suggesting that the charges against Fellows be made a condition precedent to the Attorney-General's conduct of these important election cases, inasmuch as the District-Attorney will be kept busy defending himself."

"The Governor had evidently not received the letter when he wrote his reply to us, and it is just possible that he may change his mind after reading it. It is impossible to say at present."

"What would there be in that?" was Mr. Laroque's question in reply.

"There is no reason why Mr. Fellows should be removed this month of this year. An investigation into the affairs of his office can be delayed, but these election cases should be pushed to trial during December."

"Drawing the charges should be removed on the charges made by these five men, the Governor's appointee as of the question with reference to these confidence men the present incumbent. It is necessary, you know, that a prosecutor should have the confidence of the public."

Mr. Fulton McManis, one of the Good Government Club men, who have brought charges against Fellows, said that he had been accused of no crime, he could not see why he